

Sunday Captain v Vice Captain Challenge Match

A challenge was laid down by Vice-Captain Wilson against Captain Doig for an informal match before the serious business of the week started.

Captain Gordon selected a few his trusted stalwarts from the South and was in a confident mood for the match. Vice-Captain Drew was quiet and apprehensive pre-match

The pairing were as follows, Captain's team names first.

Gordon Doig & Allister Raphael v Drew Wilson & Brian Kidd This was a close game with Gordon & Allister winning 2 up with some excellent pitching and putting.

Ian Brotherston & Ian Fraser v Les Pirie & Tom Sirel This was an excellent win of 4 up for Les and Tom over the top pairing of the captain's team.

Muir Townsley & Andy Ross v Ricky Gray & Keith Ross A 4 up win for Muir and Andy who found their touch on the green and played consistently all week.

John MacDonald & Ian Gourlay v Jim Roy & Malcolm Sim This was another tight game with Jim & Malcolm doing well to hold Ian and John to a square game.

Denis McQuade & Alex Hogg v Ewan Robertson Due to Ewan playing himself a formula was worked out before the match and Ewan done well only to lose 4 down to the evergreen pairing of Denis and Alex.

Jim Melville & Douglas Hunter v Alan Harrington & Stephen Connolly This was a tremendous 7 up win for Alan and Stephen over the Captains banker pairing of Jim and Doug who were hot favourites on the 1st tee.

The Vice Captains had a 1 hole overall victory, Captain Doig appealed the result due to the formula on game 5 this was discussed by the organising committee at length but dismissed.
